

the media room

"Rich and Larry make a better team than most married couples I know. ...If you like a few laughs, not to mention some keen insight, with your fun and games, check out "The Sportsline.""

David Teel -Newport News Daily Press

"...They're knowledgeable, they're entertaining, and they'll always leave you laughing. I look forward to doing their show every time..."

David Glenn -Editor, ACC Area Sports Journal

"...I know what sports-talk listeners want. They want guests who know their stuff, an outlet to voice their opinions and they want it delivered in an entertaining format. Rich and Larry do it better than anyone on at any time..."

Jim Ducibella -Virginian Pilot

"...What makes them [Rich and Larry] so endearing - they're not hung up on themselves and you can say anything to them. They're also two of the hardest-working guys in this particular medium, never hesitant to shoot for the stars in landing the best interview subjects..."

Doug Doughy -Roanoke Times

"... I am pleased to say that Rich Roth and Larry the Legend of "The Sportsline" are among the best in the business... They ask the tough questions, are informed enough to get to the meat of the issues, and have great senses of humor..."

I have also been impressed that "The Sportsline" guys show up at a lot of places that I show up, such as bowl games, the NCAA Tournament, the ACC Tournament, The Super Bowl, the U.S. Open (golf), and more. I don't see any other radio stations in this state doing the same."

Jerry "Hootie" Ratcliffe -Sports Editor, The Charlottesville Daily Progress

"Rich and Larry built a following on giving the sports fan what they want to hear... They might be the Butch and Sundance of the sports talk world."

Mac McDonald -Voice of the Virginia Cavaliers

"...They [Rich and Larry] do their homework. They know their stuff. It's certainly a show that works in markets across Virginia and beyond."

Bill Roth -Voice of the Virginia Tech Hokies

"...I'm a guest on more radio shows than I can count. None is more fun or more spirited than "The Sportsline"..."

Jeff White -Richmond Times-Dispatch

"Rich and Larry... know how to have fun and...get after a subject in a way that's entertaining and informative. Roth is the irreverent one, and Larry is the grounded one. The combination is perfect."

Bob Glauber -NY Newsday & "Cold Pizza"

"When it comes to sports talk, Rich and Larry do it better than everyone. They're knowledgeable and - more important - fun."

Mike Harris -Richmond Times-Dispatch